

HOW IT ALL WORKS

Entrust is a private trust that's set up to benefit every family and business connected to the Vector electricity network within our area.

WHO GETS A DIVIDEND?

If you're in the Entrust District, the dividend is paid to the person named on the power bill as at midnight on Wednesday 7 August 2019.

FIVE FAST FACTS from Entrust

1

It comes with the territory

The Entrust District covers the part of Auckland that used to be served by the old Auckland Electric Power Board. So if you're an electricity customer on the Vector network in our area, you're in line for a dividend!

2

Boosting Auckland's economy

This year we'll pay more than $120 million to the families and businesses in our area. That's a welcome cash injection for the retailers and other businesses where a lot of the money ends up.

3

Giving power poles the chop

Although Kenny the Kingfisher loves perching on powerlines, not everyone wants them on their street. As part of Entrust's shareholder agreement, Vector is required to invest $10.5 million every year on undergrounding and new technologies.

4

Strong and stable ownership of Vector

As the 75.1% majority shareholder in Vector, we make sure we fulfil our responsibilities to beneficiaries by maintaining proper oversight of Vector's operations. Vector is one of New Zealand's biggest infrastructure companies, and operates Auckland's electricity network, as well as owning OnGas and HRV.

5

Delivering to your back pocket

We started paying a dividend when we were set up in 1994. In 2003, the dividend was $155 and it's grown steadily since then to this year's total of $360. Whether you choose to put it away for a rainy day or treat the family, that's a handy chunk of change!
